"Bring Some One Who Knows"

A BARGAIN is not a bargain unless you knew something about values. When we say the Navajo Blankets we are offering at retail are priced at less than prevailing wholesale rates to dealers, we state an absolute fact. Twelve years we have been in business--but never before have we been able to offer good Navajo Blankets at anywhere near these low prices. A trader on the Reservation said he needed the money and needed it quick--we told him we could get it for him if he would make his prices right--he did--and YOU get the advantage. Last week over 100 people bought $1,585.65 worth of Navajo Blankets for cash--this week we are showing hundreds of new designs--you are bound to be satisfied with design, quality and price--COME

PROMINENT LOCAL RETAIL HOUSES WILL MOVE

Matson and Co. and Singer Cigar Company to Move Into Former Economist Store; Building to Be Remodelled.

Two prominent local business houses will move their locations during April, having taken leases on the Grant building at 208-210 West Central Avenue, formerly occupied by the Economist dry goods store. Matson & Company will take the east half of the first floor, and the Singer Cigar company, now in the Stern building at Fourth and Central, will take the west half. The two firms have not signed long term leases with the owner of the building who is to make important changes in it before the move is made. The cigar front will be taken out and new and attractive fronts put in, while the second floor will be remodelled and divided up into suites of conveniently arranged offices. For Matson & Company the move will be one of convenience, as they will have a location in the Barnett building. Both stores are making the move in order to get additional floor space made necessary by expanding business.

CONCERT FAVORITES ATTRACTION IN ELKS' THEATRE TONIGHT

When S. E. Besser of the Santa Fe reading rooms places his stamp of approval upon an attraction it can generally be accepted without question as far as merit is concerned.

Mr. Besser declares that the Concert Favorites trio which appears in Elks' theater tonight under the auspices of the reading rooms is one of the best he has been able to secure this year, a rare treat in store for the railway employees, their families and friends. The favorites consist of J. Alfred Conrad, violin virtuoso and concert soloist with a national reputation; Miss Lillian Johnson, soprano, and accompanist.

It had been expected that Clayton, the famous cartoonist and brother of J. Albert Conrad, would be with the company tonight, but he was unable to keep the engagement.

The program begins at 10 and the usual room rules for Santa Fe attractions will govern the seating of the general public.

LANDSCAPES NO LONGER BRING FANCY PRICES

Chicago, March 17.—Light on prevailing prices for landscapes was shed in the examination of Robert H. Ricketts of the art firm of Moulin and Ricketts, before the United States referee in bankruptcy. The firm's liabilities are said to be at $1,000,000.

The Barbizon school is no more than holding its own with American landscapists in the picture market, according to prices named by Mr. Cole of Chicago, who told of buying from Ricketts, "In the Forest" by Diaz for $2,000, "Golden California" by William Keith for $2,000, "The Forest of Fontainebleau" by Diaz for $12,000, and "Adirondack Woods" by Wyant for $2,000. The large Diaz later was resold at an advance of $10,000 and the Wyant for $20,000, according to Cole, who testified that he financed the handling of the pictures by Ricketts.

A. Preyer of The Hague, Holland, a firm of art dealers, applied to the referee for the return of a consignment of pictures said to be worth $10,000 to the County Treasurer of Bernalillo addressed to Ricketts. The application was resisted by counsel for the Mexico. The school board reserves
